

It is your obligation to require Sinclair Broadcasting to provide a disclaimer that the film on John Kerry is fiction and opinion, not verified facts. There is a requirement for "truth in advertising" and Sinclair is failing in this. Your failure to make Sinclair do the right thing sets a precedent for the future which will haunt you.